

PUBLIC NOTICE
New Hampshire Public Utilities
Commission
Announcement of Order NISI
Petition for Authority to Issue Long
Term Debt Pennichuck East Utility
Effective November 9, 2009

On July 28, 2009, Pennichuck East Utility, Inc. (PEU) filed a petition for authority to issue long term debt. PEU seeks to borrow $6 million with a 20-year term at an interest rate in the range of 6 to 6.5%.

The purpose of the financing is 1) to refinance a $4.5 million floating-rate secured note that matures on December 31, 2009; 2) to provide $1.5 million for PEU's on-going capital improvement program; and 3) to repay short term borrowings by PEU from its parent.

The Commission issued an Order Nisi on November 9, 2009 approving the financing. An Order Nisi provides customers or other interested parties with the opportunity to submit comments or request a hearing on the proposed financing. The request for hearing should state the reason and basis for the request and be submitted to the Commission no later than November 25, 2009. In addition, any customer or other interested party may respond to any request for hearing, submitting their comments on the request no later than December 1, 2009. Absent any request for, and granting of a request for, a hearing or further action by the Commission, approval of the proposed financing will become effective as of December 8, 2009.

Customers may access the complete Order on the Pennichuck Water Works web site: www.pennichuck.com/Customer Information/NHPUC Orders. Customers who wish to have their opinion considered by the Commission on this petition may do so by emailing their comments to the Commission at executive.director@puc.nh.gov or by writing a letter to:

Jackson Community Harvest Supper is Nov. 22

Jackson Community Harvest Supper at the Whitney Center
It is the time of year for reflection, celebration and giving thanks for the multitude of blessings we share as a community. It is also the season of wonderful food, and a time to enjoy it together!

The Friends of the Whitney Community Center along with the Whitney Foundation would like to invite you to the Jackson Community Harvest Potluck on Sunday, Nov. 22. The dinner will be held at the Whitney Community Center from 5 to 7 p.m.

Please bring an appetizer, salad, or entree to serve eight people. Beverages and dessert will be provided. In addition, the musical group Hole in the Hedge — Lucy Gatchell, Dexter Harding and Mike Levine — will entertain with their wonderful blend of instrumental music.

If you have not had an opportunity to visit the community center, this will be a great chance to see this new building and mingle with neighbors. If you've already attended an event there, mark your calendar for another visit on Sunday evening.

Ambulance Service

A regular meeting with the Bartlett-Jackson Ambulance Service has been scheduled for this evening, Nov. 19, at 6 p.m. at the Glen Fire Station.

Library News

Great new books this month at the library include: "Lacuna" by Barbara Kingsolver, "Last night in Twisted River" by John Irving, "Year of the Flood" by Margaret Atwood, "Eclipse" by Richard North Patterson, "Wolf Hall" by Hilary Mantel which won this year's Man Booker Prize, "Superfrankconomics" by Steven D. Levitt, and many more. Remember to check LibraryThing.com for our latest books at www.librarything.com/catalog/jacksonpl. There are also lots of new audio books and movies available to borrow, check out what's new.

This month's adult book group is reading "West of Kabul, East of New York" by Tamin Ansary. Library Journal says about this book, (Ansary) "tells truths about dislocation, heritage, home, family, and religion that both affirm life and profoundly sadden." Many copies of the book are available, and the group will meet to discuss it on Tuesday, Dec. 8, at 5 p.m.

Teens will be reading "Season of Ice" by Diane Les Becquets this month. Set in Maine, this novel is an account of the troubled times encountered by a young girl and her family following the disappearance of her father on the ice. Teens will meet to discuss the story on Tuesday, Nov. 24, at 6:30 p.m.

Library Trustees

The next trustee meeting takes place today, Thursday, Nov. 19, at 1 p.m. at the Church Parish House in the Betty Whitney Library on the second floor. The public is welcome to attend. Budget preparation is the main item on the agenda.

Stocking Stuffers available at the library

Stop by the library to pick up the beautiful, new Jackson Public Library fridge magnet, with details of library opening hours, or a Book Lover's 2010 Calendar for $5. Also available are attractive, burgundy, cloth bags, featuring a picture of the library. These bags, at $8 each, will become collector's items once the new library building is completed, so don't miss out.

Jackson Grammar School Playground and Whitney Community Center Update

Bark mulch has been spread and following a few adjustments to the swings, the school playground has been re-installed and is delighting local school children once more. Meanwhile, the Whitney Community Center's attractive new stage curtain will soon be seeing some action at forthcoming theatrical productions and Christmas concerts over the next few weeks.

Jackson 5/6 Wins Carroll County Soccer Tournament

Congratulations go to Jackson Grammar School's 5/6 Soccer team (together with some super substitutes from the 3/4 Class), who put on a very impressive performance in winning the 2009 Carroll County Soccer Tournament held recently at the Brewster Academy in Wolfeboro. Through four tight games the team played as a determined and cohesive unit, always encouraging one another and never giving up. The first game was a 3-0 win against Wakefield, then came a 2-0 triumph over Wolfeboro. In the third game, a last minute goal

New Hampshire Public Utilities Commission Announcement of Order Nisi

Petition for Authority to Issue Long Term Debt Pennichuck East Utility Effective November 9, 2009

On July 28, 2009, Pennichuck East Utility, Inc. (PEU) filed a petition for authority to issue long term debt. PEU seeks to borrow $6 million with a 20-year term at an interest rate in the range of 6 to 6.5%.

The purpose of the financing is 1) to refinance a $4.5 million floating-rate secured note that matures on December 31, 2009; 2) to provide $1.5 million for PEU's on-going capital improvement program; and 3) to repay short term borrowings by PEU from its parent.

The Commission issued an Order Nisi on November 9, 2009 approving the financing. An Order Nisi provides customers or other interested parties with the opportunity to submit comments or request a hearing on the proposed financing. The request for hearing should state the reason and basis for the request and be submitted to the Commission no later than November 25, 2009. In addition, any customer or other interested party may respond to any request for hearing, submitting their comments on the request no later than December 1, 2009. Absent any request for, and granting of a request for, a hearing or further action by the Commission, approval of the proposed financing will become effective as of December 8, 2009.

Customers may access the complete Order on the Pennichuck Water Works website: <http://www.pennichuck.com/CustomerInformation/NHPUCOrders>.
