RE: Supplier license application documents under Docket DM13-027, filed by US mail and email

Dear Ms. Howland:

We are pleased to inform you that the documents outstanding under our licensing docket, DM13-027, are now complete. Included with this filing are 1) a copy of our surety bond and 2) certification of EDI testing completion with Unitil Energy Systems.

Earlier this year, we had requested extensions on two occasions in order to complete our licensing package. Your patience and that of your staff has been greatly appreciated through this process.

If there is anything further that you require at this time, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,
