Petition for Intervention

The Business and Industry Association of New Hampshire (BIA), submits this Petition for Intervention, and states as follows:

1. The BIA is a nonprofit business association, which advocates for policies that promote and preserve the economic well being of the state. The BIA is composed of approximately 400 businesses in the state. These businesses vary in size and represent all segments of the commercial and industrial sectors.
2. The resolution of this docket will directly affect Public Service of New Hampshire's commercial and industrial customers. Many of these customers are BIA members.
3. The BIA has participated in numerous proceedings before the New Hampshire Public Utilities Commission in the past regarding issues similar to those presented in this docket. These issues are of critical concern to the business community and all citizens in New Hampshire.
4. BIA's participation in the proceeding will not disrupt the orderly conduct of this proceeding, or delay the proceedings.

The BIA respectfully requests that it be granted full intervenor status in this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael Licata
Vice President of Public Policy
