Re: DE 15-302, Residential Renewable Electric Generation Incentive Program
Establishing Program Waitlist and Temporarily Suspending New Applications

To Interested Persons:

On January 19, 2021, Commission Staff (Staff) filed a memorandum in which it recommended that the Commission establish a waitlist for applications to the Residential Renewable Electric Generation Incentive Program (Program), based on the Program's limited funding. Staff recommended that the Commission suspend new project applications once applications on the waitlist reach a total of $20,000 in unfunded requests.

The Commission approved program budget allocations from the Renewable Energy Fund (REF) for fiscal year 2021 (FY 21) in a secretarial letter dated December 4, 2020. According to Staff, by January 15, 2021, applications to the Program for funding had exceeded the Program's allocated FY 21 funds. In its memorandum, Staff recommended that the Commission establish a waitlist for Program applications, which provides for:

1. Applications for rebates which exceed current Program funding will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis; and
2. The waitlist will be limited to a maximum amount of $20,000 in pending applications or new applications.

Staff recommended that the Commission temporarily suspend its acceptance of new Program applications once the waitlist reaches a total of $20,000 in unfunded requests. Staff stated that the suspension would remain in effect until electricity providers' alternative compliance payments are deposited into the REF, on or about July 1, 2021, and additional funding is allocated to the Program. Until then, Staff would continue to monitor and process Program applications, using funding allocated to expired applications to provide rebates to those on the waitlist.

The Commission has reviewed Staff's memorandum and recommendations, and has approved the creation of a waitlist to include applications totaling not more than $20,000 in unfunded requests. The Commission has further approved temporarily suspending the acceptance of new applications when the waitlist exceeds $20,000 in unfunded requests.

Sincerely,
