Re: Docket No. IR 22-076: Initial Comments of Unitil Energy Systems, Inc.

Dear Chair Goldner:

In connection with the above-referenced matter I enclose the Initial Comments of Unitil Energy Systems, Inc. (“Unitil” or the “Company”). On March 17, 2023, Unitil and the other New Hampshire electric distribution companies submitted a Joint Motion requesting a for a one-week extension of time to file Initial Comments, from March 21, 2023 to March 28, 2023. As explained in the Joint Motion, the requested extension was necessary due to staffing impacts caused by Winter Storm Sage. The Joint Motion remains pending before the Commission. Unitil respectfully requests that the Commission grant the Joint Motion or, alternatively, accept these late filed comments for the benefit of a complete record in this investigation.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Patrick H. Taylor", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
