Re: DE 22-060, Consideration of Changes to the Current Net Metering Tariff Structure, Including Compensation of Customer Generators

CPCNH response to Joint Party order of witness presentation for the August 20 and 22, 2024 hearings

Dear Clerk,

At 4:17pm today, Attorney Jessica Chiavara of Eversource Energy filed a joint party proposal for order of witnesses for the hearings on behalf of all parties. Unfortunately, Attorney Chiavara misrepresented the Community Power Coalition of New Hampshire (CPCNH) in her filing as CPCNH did not consent to this order of witness presentation. In fact, we shared our concerns with Attorney Chiavara and several of the other parties via email on August 9, 2024. In that email, we suggested that it would be more efficient for the rebuttal panel to be integrated into the settlement panel. If the Commission chooses to go along with the proposed order that Attorney Chiavara and the other parties suggested, and as also indicated in CPCNH's August 9 email, CPCNH would request an opportunity for sur-rebuttal and note that there is no petitioning party in this proceeding.

Pursuant to the 7/24/23 Order of Notice in this matter, this filing is only being made electronically by email to the current service list including the Office of Consumer Advocate.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you.

Yours truly,

Clifton Below
