Re: Mill Brook Village Water System
Proposed Sale of System

Dear Customer, Board of Selectman Members, and NHDES Water Division Personnel:

This letter is to advise you that Marc Liechti and Justin Ahmann, private investors from Montana, along with James Ingram, the current owner of Mill Brook Village Water System, have filed a petition with the State of New Hampshire Public Utilities Commission to transfer the ownership from James Ingram to Marc Leichti and Justin Ahmann. This water system is located within the Town of Thornton and serves 44 customer accounts.

The purpose of this letter is to inform you of the proposed ownership transfer and the Commission's proceeding in which it will consider the proposed transaction. This letter is to also provide you with a name and contact information in the event you have any questions concerning the proposed transaction. Filings made in this proceeding will also be available on the Commission's web site: www.puc.nh.gov under the virtual file room for the 2024 dockets.

The New Hampshire Public Utilities Commission has issued an order of notice in Docket No. DW 24-069, which schedules a prehearing conference on July 31, 2024, at 9:00 a.m. A copy of the order of notice will be posted in the docket on the Commission's website at <https://www.puc.nh.gov/Regulatory/Docketbk/2024/24-069.html> .

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me at 603-236-6373 or email me at jim.r.ingram@gmail.com.

Very truly yours,

James Ingram, Owner
