Re: DT 18-167, Union Telephone Company
Intrastate Access Tariff (NHPUC No. 10)

Dear Ms. Ladwig:

On October 25, you submitted on behalf of Union Telephone Company (Union) proposed changes to its intrastate access tariff (NHPUC No. 10) that break the concurrences that previously appeared in Section 5 (Access Ordering), Section 7 (Special Access Service), and Section 13 (Additional Engineering, Additional Labor, and Miscellaneous Services), and adds Sections 12 (Specialized Service Arrangements) and 14 (Transmission Specifications).

On November 28, 2018, you requested an extension of two weeks, until December 10, 2018, for the tariff changes to take effect.

Staff reviewed the revisions and concluded that they are consistent with JSI Tariff No. 1 (Union's Interstate Access Tariff). Staff noted, however, that the marginal tariff notes were incorrect and should be deleted. The Commission has accepted Staff's recommendation.

For administrative efficiency, an order will not be issued by the Commission suspending, rejecting, or approving the proposed changes. The proposed changes are effective as proposed, on December 10, 2018. Accordingly, Union should file compliance tariff pages with no marginal notations by January 23, 2019.

Sincerely,
